

Welcome to Lifestyle Swimming Instruction

My name is Susanne Van Buren. I am a WSI and SCW certified instructor, along with a USA swimming safety Certified Coach. I had a great fear of the water growing up. My background is in elementary education, when I had my children I saw a need for teaching the sport of swimming here in Boise. I could teach education, but never really thought about swimming, until my first child struggled with it. I wanted a different road for them. My whole life changed when I learned to be confident in the water. With some wonderful people and coaches I have met in my journey to where I am now, life is not the same without swimming! Learning to swim stretches a child's and adults boundaries. It takes a lot of time and patience. I have been given a gift that I would like to share with others. This is why I began LSI. I specialize in helping children and adults overcome their fear of the water. I also enjoy coaching all ages in competitive swimming. My children are now all competing year around in swimming and are loving it!

LSI's Goals

My main goals are that all children and adults learn the safety skills needed for being around the water, learn how to breathe properly, and learn the correct body positioning to progress and define their skills. I plan for each time someone enters the door, they leave knowing more. At the same time they are learning to enjoy themselves in the water they are getting the exercise needed to stay fit. I follow the American Red Cross Program, along with some Total Immersion and Olympic Techniques that will help children and adults progress. My teaching style is geared toward each individuals learning style. I enjoy teaching children and adults of all ages. I believe in helping my swimmers set goals, and also working on developing proper technique while improving endurance and a love of swimming. Remember it is never too late to learn anything if you just put your minds and bodies to it you will amaze yourself!

Swimming is not just a sport it's a necessity!

Are you comfortable with having your children around water? Are they scared to put their faces in the water? Do your children need an exercise to keep them healthy and in shape? Are you looking for an activity to keep you healthy and in shape? Are you looking for a convenient location? Do you get headaches around the chlorine? This is why I do what I do in our Salt Water Pool. I am here to help train you and/or your child to be comfortable around water or to just keep active. Exercise is so important to our health. Water exercise is so easy on your joints and helps you and your children in other sports. Swimming is so important to continue for little children during the fall and winter months. The fear can come back after they have overcome that during their summer sessions. For older children and adults it helps greatly with strength, flexibility and endurance in swimming and other sports.
